Outcome Achieved/ Attained:

Auditing is the part of accounting course which helps the students to understand pursuit of business objectives, assess the risk misstatement, and fraud prevention and detection. With the rapid increase in the number of companies in the present century, this profession has assumed an ever-increasing role in the business community. It was so because the auditor played a vital role in instilling confidence in the public at large with regard to company form or organization by revealing the fact to them and imposing to check the upon the management. Its strides forwards have been tremendous since various countries passed company legislation with provision making the adult of joint stock companies compulsory. This turned out to be instrumental in establishing it as major profession.

The fundamental object to make the benefited of auditing accounts is to find out after going through the books of accounts whether the balance sheet is prepared according to the prescribed from and it is exhibiting the correct and true financial position of the concern on the date on which it is prepared. The second object is to see whether the profit and loss accounts is properly prepared according to the companies Act and it is showing the correct and ex, act profit and loss of the concern for the period for which it is prepared. This program helped for the students:

- To understand the meaning, importance advantage and the difference between in auditing and Accountancy
- To understand the examine and internal check of accounts, Understand different types of errors and Understand about fraud.
- Understand the different types of auditing methods and Understand about how to conduct the audit.
- Learn about the qualification which should be attained to become an auditor.
- Learn about the process of disqualification of an auditor.
 At the end conducted online MCQs with the help of Quiklrn LMS on the subject and students performed very well. The grade sheet in graph format is as follows;

Coordinators Comment:

This particular program enjoyed by all the students which is additional course apart from the syllabus. The program was also helped for those who wish make their career in auditing. Students got a fair idea about the auditing and their role in the corporate. Overall this Certificate Course on Auditing program was great success.
