Brief Report on "Bridge Course on Accounting"

Organized by RV Institute of Management For Non-Commerce Background Students (2023-25 Batch)

The RV Institute of Management conducted a Bridge Course on Accounting for the non-commerce background students of the 2023-25 batch. The course aimed to provide foundational knowledge in accounting and prepare students for the rigorous management curriculum ahead.

The program was coordinated by Dr. Srikanth P., Dr. Sumera A, Prof. Pooja Takalkar, and Prof. Shoaib Khan, who ensured smooth execution and impactful delivery of the sessions.

Objectives:

- To introduce essential accounting concepts to students with no prior background in commerce.
- To build a strong base in financial accounting, enabling better understanding of advanced subjects.
- To boost confidence in dealing with accounting-related topics during their MBA studies.

Course Highlights:

1. Content Coverage:

- Fundamental accounting principles and concepts.
- Structure and interpretation of financial statements.
- Basics of journal entries, ledgers, and trial balance.
- Practical applications through exercises and examples.

2. Teaching Methodology:

- Interactive and student-centered approach with real-life examples.
- Focus on simplifying technical jargon for ease of understanding.

3. Student Response:

Participants appreciated the course for its clarity and relevance. The sessions helped them overcome initial apprehensions about accounting and boosted their confidence.

Conclusion:

The Bridge Course on Accounting successfully bridged the knowledge gap for non-commerce students, laying a strong foundation for their academic journey at RV Institute of Management. The institute extends gratitude to the program coordinators for their dedicated efforts in making the initiative a success.
