Hello Sir,

Good Morning,

with respect to the discussion we had with your good selves regarding Maxhub displays for RVIM, we had requested the Maxhub for the betterment of Pricing but sir the price what we have quoted is the best possible from our end as this was negotiated recently for RVIT&M on a bulk requirement and we are giving it with 8GB memory. we are also getting very thin margin.

Request your good selves to kindly consider and advise.

Thanks & Regards,

Hi Narasimha Ji,

Good day, its heartening to see the repeat orders that we are receiving from RV and we are committed to deliver the best of the service and the best of the products to our customers.

But as you know that the price that we have agreed upon is a special price for RV and there is no further room for any reduction of the prices.

Request you to kindly place the order at the rate at which we had previously agreed and even that rate was agreed as a special case for the previous order but keeping the value of RV groups in mind we would agree to extend the same price for this requirement too.

Kindly do the needful.

Honorary Secy Sir, RSST

We have been using it since last 5-6 weeks (one that we procured some time back) and it working best for us.

As we wish to start on-line classes for the III semester from 05.10.2020 and all the faculty are keen to use it as it gives a class-rooms feeling and has all the features that are required to make on-line classes more effective, live & engaging. Approval note of the last purchase is enclosed herewith for your reference.

→ Even for the off-line (physical) classes this kind of displays are required today to make the C/R learning interesting & engaging.

- Dilivered and got quotes from M/s Tech ocean & revised quote from M/s Gurudev Infotech.
