Director welcomed the members of the committee for the meeting and the meeting commenced with Silent Prayer.

The members introduced themselves & Dr. Anupama Malagi explained in detail regarding ragging, its consequences & a small video clip of 5 min was shown to sensitise the same. Further, Madam explained about the importance about the committee & its role, responsibilities. Each of the members were given a handout about the Ragging. The members were asked to visit the hostels & PGs in which our MBA student were staying. It was noted that from the day of commencement of the MBA programme till date, no ragging cases have been reported. Madam stressed on the fact that, discipline is of paramount importance in every one's life. We, at RVIM, strongly advocate & practice the same & motivate & encourage holistic ~~learning~~ learning.

Anti Ragging Initiatives

Even though we ~~do~~ not have any reported case of ragging, as an anti-ragging initiative we have the Display boards containing the contact details of committee members, which have been displayed at prominent places in our Institute on all the floors. The first year students are oriented about anti-ragging committee immediately after induction & they have to submit a pledge that the student will not involve themselves in ragging | directly or in-directly, they have to submit an affidavit in a format prescribed by the AICTE.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thank from Mrs. Anitha D'Silva, Sr. Asst Professor, RVIM, Bangalore.
