Director welcomed the members of the committee for the meeting and the meeting started with a silent prayer. Dr. Anupama Malagi explained in detail regarding ragging, its consequences and small videos were played to sensitize the same.

Further, Director explained about the importance about the committee and roles its responsibilities. Each of the members was given a handout about the Ragging containing the helpline numbers and the Police Station Address & the contact nos. near the College & the Hostels. (Both Men's and Ladies). The members were asked to visit the Hostels (Both Men's and Ladies) in which our MBA students are accommodated. It was also mentioned, that it was the responsibility of the Squad members to inspect the Hostels twice a month & report findings & suggestion in the registers.

It was noted that from the day of commencement of the MBA programme till date, no ragging cases have been reported. Dr. Noor Madam, stressed on the fact that, discipline is of paramount importance in every one's life, we at RVIM strongly advocate and practice the same and motivate, encourage holistic learning. The meeting concluded.

Anti-ragging Initiatives/Measures:-

Even though we do not have any reported cases of ragging, as an anti-ragging initiative we have, display boards containing the contact details of committee members, which have been displayed at prominent places in our institute in the entire floor. The first year students are oriented about the anti-ragging committee immediately after induction and they have to submit a pledge/undertaking that the student will not involve themselves in ragging directly or indirectly. They have to submit an affidavit in a format prescribed the AICTE, New Delhi.

The meeting concluded with the vote of thanks from Ms. Anitha D'Silva, Sr. Assistant Professor, RVIM, Bangalore
