A Report and Relevant documents of Online Management Development Programme on “Role of Business in Sustainable Development”

Date: 24th to 28th January, 2022	Venue: Online
Time: 3.00 pm to 4:30 pm	Audience: People of Industry and Academia
No. of Participant: 480	Event Coordinator: Dr. Noor Firdoos Jahan

Objectives

The United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) have opened an unprecedented door for business participation in global peace and development. The UN and firms worldwide—including, but not limited to, multi-national corporations (MNCs)—are increasingly working together for sustainable development, and the UN considers the private sector to be an essential partner in their ambitious SDG agenda. Executives from business need these skills to incorporate sustainability in their activities. The Management teachers and students should also know the relevance of this topic with its implications on the business. Hence the main objective of this programme was to explore the role of Business in Sustainable Development

Periodic Lecture Programme
Sponsored by Indian Council of Philosophical Research
In association with
R V INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT

Date: 18 th November, 2021; 18 th January, 2022; 12 th March, 2022; 29 th March, 2022.	Venue: RVIM
Time: 11:00 AM to 12:00 PM	Event : Periodic Lecture Programme
No. of Participant: 150	Event Coordinator: Dr. Padmalini Singh

Objectives

- "No nation can move forward by forgetting its culture and heritage." The aim of the webinar was to discover and rediscover innumerable gems by delving into the rich treasure of Indian culture and values.

Agenda/Flow of the Event

1st Periodic Lecture:

One hour webinar was organized in a discussion mode where some pertinent questions were asked by the speaker Dr. Pawan Kumar Singh, Director, IIM Trichy to the audience to be able to understand the basic values embodied in Indian Culture and how it can be used for the National Reconstruction.

2nd Periodic Lecture:

RV Institute of Management organized ICPR sponsored Periodic Lecture series scheduled between 10:35-11:35 am. by Dr. Jose, Professor of Philosophy at Dharmaram Vidya Kshetram and Christ University, Bangalore on 'Social and Political philosophy'

3rd Periodic Lecture:

The periodic lecture series continued with a lecture session on 'Ethics of Globalization' by Dr. Subhash Sharma, Director, Indus Business Academy, Bangalore on 12th March, 2022.

4th Periodic Lecture:

The last periodic lecture session was led by Dr. Purushottam Bung, Director, RV Institute of Management, Bangalore on 29th March, 2022 on 'Philosophical Perspective on Sustainability'.

Outcome Achieved/ Attained:

1st Periodic Lecture:

The audience were able to understand the Indian value system with the analogy of speed and direction. Dr. Pawan explained that the youth require both speed and direction to excel in life. The Indian value system provides the right direction to the youth that have a fragile mind whereas skills acquired in life provides the speed to the youth. He explained that becoming success by exercising speed and direction is important but both are balanced by ethics. He also deliberated what are basic Indian values rooted deep into our culture and documented in scriptures can help us today to reconstruct our nation.

Dr. Harsh Purohit, Dean WISDOM, Banasthali University, Rajasthan

Dr. Ajoy, Associate Professor, SIT Tumkur.

2nd Periodic Lecture:

The Periodic Lecture Programme on the topic 'Social and Political philosophy' was organized on Jan 18, 2022 10:35 AM on Zoom platform by Dr. Jose Nandhikkara, Professor of Philosophy at Dharmaram Vidya Kshetram and Christ University, Bangalore. Fr Jose was formerly Dean of the Faculty of Philosophy, Dharmaram Vidya Kshetram, Bangalore, Head of the Department of Philosophy and Theology at Christ University, Bangalore, and Director of the Centre for the Study of World Religions, Bangalore. Fr Jose contributes to the fields of Philosophical Anthropology, Ethics, Inter-cultural and Inter-religious Dialogue, Philosophy of Language, and Philosophy of Religion. He has authored a book, edited six volumes, and contributed over seventy research articles in journals and edited volumes.

The webinar began with basic understanding of social and political philosophies underlying its implication in today's social make-up. He explained the relevance of social and political philosophy by rendering the knowledge of philosophical types and its impact in our daily life. Dr. Jose paved the way to ponder over the need to change the existing political philosophy that is purely guided by maximization of profits and growing consumerism which is leading to endless greed to consume more thus depleting the abundant natural resources.

The poster features a blue diagonal banner in the top-left corner with the text "RV Institute of Management". In the top-right corner, it says "Go, change the world". The central text reads: "ICPR sponsored Periodic Lecture Programme On 'Social and Political Philosophy' By Dr. Jose Nandhikkara Professor of Philosophy at Dharmaram Vidya Kshetram and Christ University, Bangalore". Logos for ICPR, RV Institutions, and two accreditation awards (A+ NAAC and EQUIS) are displayed. The bottom of the poster includes the website "RVIM Bangalore" and the date "18/01/2022".

3rd Periodic Lecture:

Dr. Subhash Sharma Dr. Subhash Sharma is a leading Indian Management thinker and author of several thought provoking books such as Creation from Shunya, Management in New Age: Western Windows Eastern Door, Quantum Rope: Science, Mysticism & Management, New Mantras in Corporate Corridors, New Earth Sastra to name a few.

Dr. Subhash Sharma deliberated on the importance of ethics in today's time. He explained his idea of 'Corporate Veda' as a basis for application of Indian ethos in corporate context. As societies have undergone transitions from kingdom states to nation-states and now we are witnessing the emergence of corporates as states.

Indian ethos provides us a strong foundational basis for the development of management ideas for 'new age corporates'. He described and explained various models to reinforce the importance of ethics in globalization.

The image shows a Zoom meeting interface with a grid of participants. The participants' names and avatars are visible, including Dr. Subhash Sharma, Dr. Padmavati Singh, Vishal Chokla, Nagaraj Hegde, Pooja Vallur, RVM Host, Gurjan Baidya, Nikhil V Shastri, Nikhil S Anjanelli, Akhila. - ▶ Typology of Globalization
- ▶ I. Globalization
- ▶ II. Glocalization
- ▶ III. Local to Global (LG) e.g. Atmanirbhar Bharat

4th Periodic Lecture:

Dr. Purushottam Bung addressed the gathering on “Philosophical Perspectives on Sustainability’ started his session from a basic understanding of sustainability and layered it through a step wise explanation of why it is important to talk about philosophy, why there is an disequilibrium in the universe and what is the solution to this growing problem. He then explained various philosophies such as Bhagvat gita, Shiaiva philosophy, patanjali yoga sutra, taittrayi upnishand, Buddhism, gandhian philosophy, tribal philosophy and Shri Suresh Hundre philosophy of contemporary thinkers on sustainability.

He explained that various Indian philosophies focus on knowing the self as prime most factor in bringing the equilibrium and harmony in the universe. He also explained the equation $\text{wealth} = \text{money} + \text{peace}$ given by Shri Suresh Hundre.

What is sustainability?

Man Elephant War Ricky Kej - Love Divine - Elephant Song - GRAMMY® WINNER.mp4

What is Sustainability.mp4

- † Development without affecting future
- † Maintaining equilibrium in the universe is important
- † Unsustainable Consumption + Plastic Pollution + Greenhouse gases + Ozone depletion + Rise in temperature + Global warming + Climate change
- † Systems thinking
- † Triple Bottom line (Profit – People – Planet)

Why are we now talking about sustainability?

Loss of biodiversity and Depletion of Resources

Hatred and warfare because of gaps in the society

Global Warming and Climate Change

- † Consumerism
- † Big becoming bigger and small becoming smaller
- † Unfair access to resources
- † People becoming greedy
- † We don't care attitude
- † Wasting natural resources
- † Wars and Terrorism activities
- † Biological warfare
- † Cyber warfare
- † Extinction of species
- † Disturbing the food chain created by God
- † Pollution (Air + Water + Noise)
- † Disturbing the harmony of the nature

Extract from Online Participation List and Attendance Registrations

Due to Covid 19 public gathering restrictions and lockdown the participation in Online was preferred by most participants and few organizing team members and public were in the campus. The Big Screen was deployed for wider coverage.

WORKSHOP ON APPLICATION OF MACHINE LEARNING ALGORITHMS USING R

Date: 11 th – 12 th January 2022	Venue: Digital Lab
Time: 2.30 pm to 5.00 pm	Event Coordinator: Dr. Jahnavi M, Prof. N Nagasubba Reddy
No. of Participant: 55 All students of Business Analytics and Teaching Staff

Objectives of the Workshop:

The overall objective of this workshop is to cover the fundamentals of machine learning. It provides an overview of machine learning techniques and their uses by using a practice-based approach

About the Resource Person:

Prof. Chandrika P V, is an Academician, Data Analyst and Consultant. She is the University Rank Holder in MBA (HR & Finance) and in M.SC (Applied Mathematics). She holds a diploma in Business Analytics from Harvard Business School, USA. She has designed and organized research and data analytics workshops and trained participants across the globe. She has conducted MDPs for MNCs like IOCL & Philips. She is a renowned resource person for the workshops in the area of research analytics in Python, R, SPSS, Tableau and Microsoft Azure.

About the Program:

Machine Learning is one of the most recent developments in the domain of Business Analytics, which is a technique designed where the Machine is made to think and process like Human beings were well narrated by Prof. Chandrika who gave detailed information on different techniques and methodologies employed across various business analytic tools like R, Python of that emphasizing highly on R-Programming Prof. Chandrika demonstrated how machine learning algorithms help in finding out the optimal solution for the problem with a unique set of specifications.

Begin with, the session started with a brief overview of - Introduction of Data, Data Types: Structured, Un-Structured, Qualitative, Quantitative along with Types of Analytics such as Predictive, Prescriptive, Descriptive was well demonstrated with suitable examples

Overview of Machine Learning Algorithms along with its types named as Supervised, Unsupervised learning was explained and the sub-categories of supervised learning such as: - Classification and Regression along with techniques under each of the sub-type and clear differentiation between the Classification and Regression was specified with examples and Unsupervised learning of Clustering techniques was illuminated with appropriate examples which created a strong base to the participants.

Decision Tree Classifiers were Thought to Code and Execute using Purchase Order Data, where the Dependent Variable was purchasing decision while the set of Independent variables were Asset Classes, Gender, Period of holding, No. of Assets, Price the decision tree was thought to be pruned/ trimmed as per the most significant variables and the model designed was thought to be tested using confusion matrix and misclassification error and the model generated was tested with new data to test whether the decision tree was efficient enough in predicting the new customer preference.

On Day two, Neural Networks Were Practically demonstrated with the help of a Loan Data Base. During the session, neural network functioning was explained and how the neurons work, and how the inter-neural communication and connection were well-demonstrated.

Overall the two-day workshop was thoroughly informative and introduced students to the machine learning algorithms using R-programming, which made them comfortable in learning. The workshop demonstrated, efficient flow right from the basics of data to advance machine learning algorithms and understanding them, which made it easy for all the participants to learn Machine Learning systematically.

We thank Prof. Chandrika for her tremendous effort to help us understand Machine Learning using R-programming and help us gain a strong base in Business Analytics.

Outcome Achieved:

The participants gained in-depth knowledge of machine learning, which they can use in practice or as a foundation for further research in this field. They are in a position to apply the methods to a real-world situation, optimize the models they have learned, and report on the model's expected accuracy.

A Webinar on “An overview of Neuroscience and its Application”

Date: 6 th and 7 th January, 2022	Venue: Webinar / Zoom meeting
Time: 2:30 PM to 3:30 PM	Event : Webinar
No. of Participant: 150	Event Convener: Dr. Padmalini Singh

Objectives

- The webinar was organized to provide an understanding of Neuroscience and Its application in Marketing.

Agenda/Flow of the Event

Resource Person:

Dr. Naveen G Halappa
Senior Assistant Professor
School of Public Health &
School of Buddhist Studies, Philosophy, and Comparative Religions

R V Institute of Management organized a webinar on “An overview of Neuroscience and its Application” especially for marketing specialization students as it is a growing field of research in understanding the consumer behaviour. It is important for all students to understand how the brain functions and responds to a stimuli and what are the tools and techniques to capture and record brain functions.

The resource person is an expert in this field who have done PhD in neuroscience from NIMHANS, Bangalore. He deliberated on basics of neuroscience, mapping the brain with MRI, fMRI and MRS, Attention, Consciousness, and Memory assessed by neuropsychological scale. He shared his own research study results and real time examples for better understanding.

Feedback & Coordinator Comment:

The webinar was appreciated by the students and faculty members. Many new things like parts of brain, left and right brain, various tools and techniques used to analyze brain activity, mapping of the brain, attention, consciousness and memory.

The webinar paved a way to understand neuromarketing better.
