Objectives

This workshop aims at providing practical knowledge about the trends in International Business to the students from the practitioner's perspective

Introduction

This workshop on the emerging trends in International Business to the students from the practitioner's perspective coordinated by Dr. Noor Firdoos Jahan and featured insights from Mr. Harish Kamath, Sr. VP - Engineering, Indecomm Global Services, Bangalore. The seminar aimed to enhance the understanding of students towards the international business and changes taking place in the international scenario

Key Highlights

The seminar was very well delivered by the resource person, Mr. Harish and it was very much beneficial for our students as:

- The seminar was organized by Dr. Noor Firdoos Jahan as a value addition to the subject International Business Dynamics to provide students with the knowledge, skills, and abilities to understand the global economic, political, cultural and social environment within which the firms operate and create opportunities for itself.
- The learning of the students about the subject was very well explained by the resource person in practice through sharing his experience in international business.
- He discussed about the Best Practices in Global Sourcing by discussing his company case study and how this sourcing have their company and the problems faced by them in this process. The international organization structure adopted by the companies was also discussed in the seminar with an illustration Global operations management and how pricing is determined in the international business was very well explained by him. The digital currency in which transactions are verified and records maintained by a decentralized system using cryptography, rather than by a centralized authority is called as cryptocurrency. The concept was very well explained by him by showing the process of transaction in cryptocurrency

Overall the learning of the students was very good and objectives of arranging this session were very much achieved.

Conclusion

The session concluded with a call for continued exploration and discussion on the various trends of international business as it is very dynamic field.
