Report on Domain-Specific Course Workshop on "Financial Planning for Young Investors"

Date: 4.3.2026	Venue: Seminar Hall, RVIM, Bangalore.
Time: 9:00 AM TO 12:30 PM	Event : Workshop
No. of Participants: 180	Event Coordinator: Prof. Pooja Takalkar.

A Domain-Specific Course Workshop on "Financial Planning for Young Investors" on 4th March 2026 (Wednesday) from 9:00 AM to 12:30 PM in the Seminar Hall (3rd Floor). The workshop was conducted for all students of the batch with the objective of enhancing their understanding of personal finance and investment planning.

The session was delivered by Dr. Purushottam Bung, who shared valuable insights on the importance of financial planning at a young age. He highlighted the need for setting financial goals, managing income and expenses effectively, cultivating disciplined saving habits, and making informed investment decisions.

The workshop covered various aspects of financial planning, including budgeting, emergency funds, investment opportunities, risk management, insurance, and long-term wealth creation. Dr. Bung explained different investment avenues available to young investors and discussed the factors that should be considered while selecting suitable investment options. Through practical examples and real-life scenarios, he helped students understand the significance of financial literacy in achieving financial security and independence.

The session was highly interactive, with students actively participating in discussions and seeking clarification on various financial concepts. The resource person encouraged students to develop a systematic approach towards financial planning and emphasized the importance of starting investments early to benefit from the power of compounding.

The workshop provided students with valuable knowledge and practical insights into managing personal finances and planning for future financial goals. It was informative, engaging, and well received by the participants. The session concluded with an interactive question-and-answer segment, where students gained further clarity on financial planning and investment-related topics.

Overall, the workshop successfully achieved its objective of creating awareness about financial planning and equipping students with essential financial management skills for their personal and professional lives.
