No. of Participant: 176	Event Coordinator: Dr. Padmalini Singh, Dr. Anupama Malagi, Prof. Ramya. S

Objectives

- To impart knowledge about future of learning
- To aware academicians across India about various modes of learning to enhance their teaching learning process

Agenda/Flow of the Event

- 27th May, 2020: Session 1: Inauguration followed by learning about 4 quadrants of learning and assignment 1.
- 28th May, 2020: Session 2: Learning about 4 modes of leadership & organization
- 29th May: Session 3: Understanding about Learning organization Design, Neuroscience of learning and Design challenge Assignment 2.

Outcome Achieved/ Attained:

Three days Faculty Development Program gathered lot of appreciation from participants from across India. The participants profile varied from Principal, Dean, HOD, Professor, Consultant and executives working in the various institutions. The FDP was able to expose them to new teaching learning orientation that is required for every organization to understand and customize their resources and capabilities to cater to their target audience. The FDP program also extended their knowledge about designing, restructuring and utilizing their resources in a way that may complement the new mode of learning that students demands today.
