RV Institute of Management successfully organized the IIMB Business Championship – Supply Chain Management Course from 12th to 14th December 2025. The three-day program was conducted by Mr. Wahed Baig from MakeIntern with the objective of enhancing students' understanding of modern supply chain management practices and preparing them for business competitions and industry requirements.

The course provided participants with practical insights into supply chain operations, logistics, procurement, inventory management, and strategic decision-making. Through interactive sessions, case discussions, and industry examples, students were introduced to the complexities and opportunities within supply chain ecosystems.

The objectives of the program were:

- To provide a comprehensive understanding of supply chain management concepts
- To familiarize students with logistics, procurement, and inventory management practices
- To enhance analytical and decision-making skills in business operations
- To prepare students for participation in business competitions and industry challenges
- To bridge the gap between academic learning and industry requirements

Program Highlights

The three-day course covered key aspects of supply chain management, including supply chain design, demand forecasting, procurement strategies, warehouse management, logistics optimization, risk management, and digital transformation in supply chains. Mr. Wahed Baig shared practical insights from industry experiences and highlighted current trends shaping global supply chains.

The sessions incorporated case studies, real-world business scenarios, and problem-solving exercises that enabled students to apply theoretical concepts to practical situations. Participants actively engaged in discussions on supply chain disruptions, sustainability, technology integration, and competitive business strategies.

The resource person also provided guidance on approaching business championship challenges, emphasizing teamwork, critical thinking, and strategic planning in solving complex supply chain problems.

Student Engagement

Students participated enthusiastically throughout the program, demonstrating keen interest in the discussions and activities. Interactive exercises and case analyses encouraged collaborative learning and helped participants develop a deeper appreciation of supply chain dynamics. The sessions provided students with valuable exposure to industry practices and emerging opportunities in operations and supply chain management.

Learning Outcomes

Through the Supply Chain Management Course, students gained:

- Understanding of key supply chain management concepts and practices
- Knowledge of logistics, procurement, inventory, and distribution systems
- Enhanced analytical and problem-solving abilities
- Exposure to industry challenges and best practices
- Improved readiness for business competitions and professional careers in operations and supply chain management

Conclusion

The IIMB Business Championship – Supply Chain Management Course conducted by Mr. Wahed Baig from MakeIntern was a highly enriching learning experience for the students of RV Institute of Management. The program successfully enhanced participants' knowledge, practical understanding, and strategic thinking capabilities in the field of supply chain management. The initiative reflects the institution's commitment to providing industry-relevant learning opportunities and fostering professional excellence among students.
