7. Presentation of the activities and programmes organized in the previous quarter:

8. To discuss about the new quality initiatives adopted by the institute:

- Certification program on Auditing is planning to conduct for interested students for 3 days.
- Two days FDP on GST is planning to conduct in the month of October
- Indirect Tax classes taken students to practical exposure which the student representative Mr. Nitesh Hegde shared they are happy that initiatives.

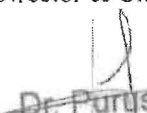

9. To seek suggestions from the members regarding continuous quality improvement:

- Few suggestions made by Mr. Karan Kumar: 1. Marketing research data reference section to be prepared and should be kept in the library which helps the marketing students and it should be prepared by students. 2. Treat RVIM as company and revenue generating should be compulsory for the all the students and keeping at least 4-6 hours per week for them to work for the same and generate minimum Rs. 10,000/- during the two years program and recognize who contributes more. As management students they can run the business after the study hours. All this will help to improve the confidence of students.
- Mr. Punith also suggested right attitude with proper skill sets helps for students to get job opportunity, for the same Chairman IQAC re-joined and put the information among the members inculcating the entrepreneurial attitude among the students was made compulsory for all students to participate Venture Fest is the initiative taken by RVIM and RVIM is partnered with NIPM around 50 students are shadowing a leader for three days to working on preparation this will help the students to inculcate the right attitude.
