Report on Sammilana 2015

Sammilana - 2015, was held on Saturday, April 25, 2015. Around 70 alumni members made their presence felt in the meet. The programme commenced with invoking the blessings of the Almighty with an invocation song. After a warm welcome and lighting the lamp, a few lines on how they can reconnect with the institute and contribute to their Almamater was discussed.

The Director Dr. T V Raju addressed all the alumni and expressed his views and ideas with each & every batch of students who were and are part of the institution. He also put forth that the alumni should involve themselves in the meet and should participate in more number so that they can network among themselves and add value to their Almamater.

Few of the alumni shared their views on days spent in the institute and also the days they are experiencing in the corporate life. Later, alumni took active part in the games that were organized by the II semester MBA students. RVIM video and video on events held was also showcased in the meeting. All the alumni expressed their joy reminiscing fun times in the class and exciting performances by the Students of II Semester MBA in presenting a dance and skit.

The meet concluded with a formal vote of thanks followed by the dinner amidst a sense of good cheer and joy.
