About the Programme

In the current complex and uncertain business scenario, a leadership style which has the ability to transform organizations to meet the demands of the 21st Century is required. To achieve this, leaders must become transformational to lead the way in the 21st century. The impact of transformational leadership reaches every level of the organization and as such it is a crucial factor at individual level, organizational level and societal level. Transformational leadership starts with the development of a vision, a view of the future that will excite and convert potential followers. The main objective of this programme is to develop an understanding of today's major issues in Leadership which will facilitate better individual performance leading to Organizational Excellence.

Objectives of the Programme

- ▲ To understand and focus on the critical areas of Transformational Leadership
- ▲ To develop individuals into transformational leaders and to lead more effective work groups in the organization

Outcome:

1. Participants were able to appreciate the various nuances of leadership and the different types of leadership.
2. Participants were able to understand importance of decision making under various circumstances and this was explained by the resource person in a very simple and understandable manner.
