Or

5.2 Refer the case back to the committee for reconsideration. In any case the Director's decision is final and binding in all the cases where there is a possible misconduct by a student.

6. ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

As a premier institution for Management, Research and Consultancy, the Institute values academic integrity and is committed to fostering an intellectual and ethical environment based on the principles of academic integrity.

Academic Integrity encompasses honesty and responsibility and awareness relating to ethical standards for the conduct of research and scholarship. The Institute believes that in all academic work, the ideas and contributions of others must be appropriately acknowledged. Academic integrity is essential for the success of the Institute and its research missions, and hence, violations of academic integrity constitutes a serious offence.

6.1 Scope and Purpose

A. This Policy on academic integrity, which forms an integral part of the Code, applies to all students at the Institute and are required to adhere to the said policy. The purpose of the Policy is twofold:

- To clarify the principles of academic integrity, and
- To provide examples of dishonest conduct and violations of academic integrity.

B. Failure to uphold these principles of academic integrity threatens both the reputation of the University and the value of the degrees awarded to its students. Every member of the University community therefore bears a responsibility for ensuring that the highest standards of academic integrity are upheld.

C. The principles of academic integrity require that a student,

- Properly acknowledges and cites use of the ideas, results, material or words of others.
- Properly acknowledges all contributors to a given piece of work.

- Makes sure that all work submitted as his or her own in a course or other academic activity is produced without the aid of impermissible materials or impermissible collaboration.
- Obtains all data or results by ethical means and reports them accurately without suppressing any results inconsistent with his or her interpretation or conclusions.
- Treats all other students in an ethical manner, respecting their integrity and right to pursue their educational goals without interference. This requires that a student neither facilitates academic dishonesty by others nor obstructs their academic progress.

6.2 Violations of this policy include, but are not limited to:

(i) Plagiarism means the use of material, ideas, figures, code or data as one's own, without appropriately acknowledging the original source. This may involve submission of material, verbatim or paraphrased, that is authored by another person or published earlier by oneself.

Examples of plagiarism include:

- (a) Reproducing, in whole or part, text/sentences from a report, book, thesis, publication or the internet.
- (b) Reproducing one's own previously published data, illustrations, figures, images, or someone else's data, etc.
- (c) Taking material from class-notes or incorporating material from the internet graphs, drawings, photographs, diagrams, tables, spreadsheets, computer programs, or other non-textual material from other sources into one's class reports, presentations, manuscripts, research papers or thesis without proper attribution.
- (d) Self plagiarism which constitutes copying verbatim from one's own earlier published work in a journal or conference proceedings without appropriate citations.
- e) Submitting a purchased or downloaded term paper or other materials to satisfy a course requirement.
- f) Paraphrasing or changing an author's words or style without citation.

(ii) Cheating

Cheating includes, but is not limited to:

- a. Copying during examinations, and copying of homework assignments, term papers, theses or manuscripts.
- b. Allowing or facilitating copying, or writing a report or taking examination for someone else.
- c. Using unauthorized material, copying, collaborating when not authorized, and purchasing or borrowing papers or material from various sources.
- d. Fabricating (making up) or falsifying (manipulating) data and reporting them in thesis and publications.
- e. Creating sources, or citations that do not exist
- f. Altering previously evaluated and re-submitting the work for re-evaluation
- g. Signing another student's name on an assignment, report, research paper, thesis or attendance sheet

(iii) Conflict of Interest: A clash of personal or private interests with professional activities can lead to a potential conflict of interest, in diverse activities such as teaching, research, publication, working on committees, research funding and consultancy. It is necessary to protect actual professional independence, objectivity and commitment, and also to avoid an appearance of any impropriety arising from conflicts of interest. Conflict of interest is not restricted to personal financial gain; it extends to a large gamut of professional academic activities including peer reviewing, serving on various committees, which may, for example, oversee funding or give recognition, as well as influencing public policy. To promote transparency and enhance credibility, potential conflicts of interests must be disclosed in writing to appropriate authorities, so that a considered decision can be made on a case-by-case basis. Some additional information is available also in the section below dealing with resources.

7. ANTI-RAGGING

1. PREAMBLE

This Handbook indicates the standard procedures and practices of the R V Institute of Management (hereinafter referred to as the 'Institute') for all students enrolling with the Institute for pursuing MBA course. All students must know that it is incumbent upon them to abide by this Code of Ethics and Conduct (hereinafter referred to as the 'Code') and the rights, responsibilities including the restrictions flowing from it. That the Institute's endeavour by means of enforcing this Code is to pioneer and administer a student discipline process that is egalitarian, conscientious, effectual and expeditious; and providing a system which promotes student growth through individual and collective responsibility. All Students are requested to be well conversant with this Code, which can be also reviewed on the official website of the Institute.

2. JURISDICTION

2.1 The Institute shall have the jurisdiction over the conduct of the students associated /enrolled with the Institute and to take cognisance of all acts of misconduct including incidents of ragging or otherwise which are taking place on the Institute campus or in connection with the Institute related activities and functions.

2.2 Institute may also exercise jurisdiction over conduct which occurs off-campus violating the ideal student conduct and discipline as laid down in this Policy and other regulations, as if the conduct has occurred on campus which shall include

- a) Any violations in the Institute against other students of the Institute.
- b) Physical assault, threats of violence, or conduct that threatens the health or safety of any person including other students of the Institute;
- c) Possession or use of weapons, explosives, or destructive devices off campus (Manufacture, sale, or distribution of prohibited drugs, alcohol etc.)

e) Conduct which has a negative impact or constitutes a nuisance to members of the surrounding off-campus community.

The Institute, while determining whether or not to exercise such off-campus jurisdiction in situations enumerated hereinabove, the Institute shall consider the seriousness of the alleged offense, the risk of harm involved, whether the victim(s) are members of the campus community and/or whether the off campus conduct is part of a series of actions, which occurred both on, and off-campus.

DO'S AND DON'TS (A SNAPSHOT)

1. Dress Code: The students are supposed to wear the uniform provided to them on the designated days. Other week days they are expected to come in smart formal attire. The dress should be decent and presentably formal at all occasions. Including during the college events within and outside the campus.
2. Attendance: Though the University stipulated attendance percentage is 75, the Institute insists every student to maintain above 90%. Since it is linked to 5 marks in their internal assessment. Only genuine cases will be considered in the end. Hall ticket for the University Examination will not be issued to any student who does not maintain the prescribed percentage of Attendance.
3. Discipline & Class Behavior: The students are instructed and monitored in the various aspects of discipline as follows
 - a. Punctuality: The students arriving late to the College will not be entertained and will not be allowed to the class. Stern action will be taken by the Institute or the student may be levied with fine for continuous action of not being punctual to the class.
 - b. Cell Phone Usage: The students are not allowed to use cell phones in the college premises or the class room. In case of usage being spotted, the cell phone will be confiscated and strict disciplinary action will be initiated.
 - c. Class behaviour and Decorum: The students are expected to maintain silence and concentrate during the class hours, or during guest lectures or seminars. They should not distract their classmates or the faculty taking class.
