2. Executive Summary

The annual flagship alumni meet, Sammilana 2025, was organized in the RVIM College Quadrangle to reinforce institutional linkages with its graduated cohorts. The milestone evening featured a high-profile cultural session by the distinguished orator and performer, Prof. Krishne Gowda from Mysore. He engaged the 25 attending alumni and faculty members through an insightful commentary on contemporary societal trends, professional journeys, and nostalgic academic values. The program provided an interactive avenue to bridge past graduates with current institutional milestones, highlighting newly upgraded infrastructure and long-term mentorship roadmaps. The session concluded with a formal networking dinner designed to facilitate collaborative alumni engagement.

3. Objectives of the Event

- To provide an institutional platform for alumni to reconnect with their alma mater, faculty members, and fellow peers across diverse batches.
- To elevate institutional engagement by hosting a specialized cultural and motivational discourse by a renowned public speaker.
- To explore strategic collaborative avenues, including corporate student mentorship, industry-academia placements, and participation in the campus incubation ecosystem.

4. Project Components and Variable Definitions

The event prioritized institutional branding and strategic network mapping across specific qualitative and administrative pillars:

- Alumni-Institutional Value Synergy and Mentorship Alignment

  Alumni assessed and discussed frameworks to translate their diverse corporate expertise into actionable student support pipelines, focusing on delivering specialized industry workshops and assisting in live corporate projects.

- Infrastructure Utilization and Resource Architecture

  The session highlighted structural updates on campus, orienting alumni on how they can actively leverage and collaborate within the newly refurbished Centre for Innovation, Entrepreneurship and Incubation.

5. Instructions & Event Parameters

- A dedicated institutional financial allocation was outlined for the evening, managing a total approved operational budget of Rs. 1,35,000/-, which included a formal honorarium of Rs. 35,000/- assigned to the chief guest.
- Digital communications and invitation cycles were segmented into dedicated 5-year batch clusters to streamline response tracking and optimize attendance logistics.
- Specialized commemorative mementos were systematically prepared and distributed to all 25 participating alumni as a token of institutional appreciation.
- Formal registration desks opened at 05:30 PM, and the structured agenda paved the way for an open-ended networking dinner concluding precisely at 08:00 PM.

6. Outcomes Attained

- Strengthened institutional goodwill and revived active engagement among the core alumni network.
- Cultivated concrete expressions of interest from corporate alumni to serve on institutional evaluation panels, deliver guest lectures, and offer internship support.
- Successfully executed a high-value cultural benchmark event that enhanced campus community engagement and cross-batch networking.

8. Conclusion

The annual alumni meet Sammilana 2025 successfully delivered on its mandate of preserving institutional heritage and sustaining a dynamic graduate ecosystem. Coordinated systematically by the Alumni Coordinator's Office, the presence of Prof. Krishne Gowda added rich cultural and intellectual depth to the evening. This milestone assembly successfully laid down progressive benchmarks for subsequent alumni interface chapters, incubation support, and ongoing institutional advancement.
