Introduction

As part of its commitment towards community engagement, preventive healthcare, and social responsibility, the Department of Information Technology and Business Analytics, RV Institute of Management, in collaboration with Upkriti NGO, organized a Free Eye Camp with Free Optical Glasses for senior citizens and staff members on 6th April 2026.

The programme was designed to provide accessible eye care services, promote awareness regarding eye health, facilitate early diagnosis of vision-related problems, and distribute free optical glasses to eligible beneficiaries. The initiative received an overwhelming response from senior citizens, faculty members, staff, and the local community.

Objectives of the Programme

The primary objectives of the programme were:

1. To promote awareness regarding eye health and preventive eye care.
2. To facilitate early detection of vision-related disorders.
3. To provide professional eye screening services at no cost.
4. To improve access to quality eye care services for senior citizens.
5. To distribute free optical glasses to eligible beneficiaries.
6. To encourage regular eye examinations and healthy vision practices.

About Upkriti NGO

Upkriti NGO is a social welfare organization dedicated to community development through healthcare, education, and social outreach initiatives. The organization actively conducts health camps, awareness programmes, and welfare activities aimed at improving the quality of life of individuals and communities.

Through its collaboration with educational institutions and healthcare professionals, Upkriti NGO strives to make essential healthcare services accessible to all sections of society.

Outcomes Attained

The programme resulted in the following outcomes:

- Enhanced awareness regarding eye health and vision care.
- Increased access to preventive healthcare services.
- Identification of participants requiring further ophthalmic consultation.
- Improved understanding of healthy eye care practices.
- Strengthened community engagement and social responsibility initiatives.
- Enhanced well-being of senior citizens through improved vision support.

Conclusion

The Free Eye Camp with Free Optical Glasses, organized by the Department of Information Technology and Business Analytics, RV Institute of Management, in collaboration with Upkriti NGO, was highly successful in promoting eye health and preventive healthcare among senior citizens and staff members.

The initiative provided valuable healthcare support, facilitated early diagnosis of vision-related concerns, and enhanced awareness regarding the importance of regular eye examinations. The programme reflected RVIM's continued commitment towards community service, social responsibility, and holistic well-being.

The programme concluded with participants expressing their gratitude to Upkriti NGO, the healthcare professionals, and RV Institute of Management for organizing a meaningful and impactful healthcare initiative.
